GOFFSTOWN, February 16, 1904.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

The town has been fortunate during the preceding year in the small number of contagious diseases which have appeared.

The epidemic of diphtheria of the fall of 1902 and winter of 1903 abated with no fatalities. Two other cases of diphtheria appeared later but proved to be mild in character, with no extension of the disease to others.

One case of scarlet fever has been reported. The members of the board of health congratulate themselves on the fact that their efforts to prevent the spread of an epidemic of diphtheria have so far proved successful.

Complaints have been made in a few cases of bad sanitary conditions in certain parts of the town. These conditions, however, were abated without recourse to legal proceedings.

We wish to emphasize our advice heretofore given, special care of sink drains, closets, cellars, and out buildings, ever bearing in mind that "eternal vigilance" and cleanliness is the price of freedom from disease.

REPORT OF THE TREE WARDENS.

As there seems to be a misapprehension in the minds of many as to the privileges and duties of the tree wardens appointed and directed under state law in the interests of the preservation and protection of trees within the limits of the highways, or in public grounds in the various towns, it may be well to state for general information that under this law selectmen shall appoint suitable persons as wardens, who shall proceed to mark all desirable trees within the limits of the highway and grounds with a spike and tag or washer (provided by the secretary of the state forestry commission), which trees in their judgment should be preserved for ornament or shade, and trees so marked are to be recognized as town or state trees, and are protected by law from careless injury or defacement, and the law provides penalties if ruthlessly damaged or trifled with. This is a wise and beneficial enactment both to town and individual and in line with the best interests of all concerned, for the thousands of trees thus set apart and protected will add value and attraction to farm and home, as they grow to larger and more graceful proportions, that will enhance values and comforts of country life that certainly must be appreciated by all thoughtful people. One thousand and two trees have been designated and the cost for supplies has been $4.18.

Your tree wardens contribute freely their time and service to this public and commendable work, and ask the cordial and helpful co-operation of the citizens as they endeavor to carry out the provisions of this progressive and worthy act.

WILLIAM H. STINSON,

FRANK A. PARKER,

Tree Wardens.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ROGERS FREE LIBRARY.

It is incumbent on the trustees to bring before the people the necessity of in some way providing more room for the library, and we are in hopes that some public-spirited person or native of the town will donate enough or part enough to erect a building in the near future, memorial or otherwise. If this is not done perhaps the attention and aid of Mr. Carnegie can be secured, who has done so much in New Hampshire and other states.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF CEMETERIES.

Annually the trustees of the cemeteries feel called upon to report to the town people the condition of the cemeteries. There is a growing interest each year to make the last resting place of our friends more attractive and beautiful. The people of the town as a whole are interested in this, and although much has been done in the past, much more can be done.

We have endeavored to place conveniencies for those working on lots within their reach. A suitable storage box has been placed in the village yard, in which the hose, lawn mower, grass scythe, etc., are kept, and keys are sold to individuals with the privilege of having money back when key is returned. It has been suggested by the citizens that a modern construction for lowering bodies into the grave be purchased, which certainly would be a great improvement. The new part of the yard at Grasmere has been mowed or broken over, adding greatly to the appearance of the same.

We would recommend that a representation of the Ladies Club, say two or three members, be present and act with the trustees at each meeting.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

INDEPENDENT DISTRICT.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—In submitting our annual report for the year ending January 1, 1904, we would congratulate you on the very satisfactory condition of all departments of the school.

We have been favored with the continued competent services of well-tried teachers, who have labored with earnestness and enthusiasm for the realization of the best results. That "good teachers are born, not made," is an accepted truth, which we see fully exemplified in our experience, and we are thoroughly convinced that the best in quality and fitness is always the cheapest, and is proven so when the summing up is made.

Where all have done so well it seems unnecessary to speak of each individually, for their names and other school facts are conveniently entered in the statistical table presented further along in the report.

With reluctance we accepted the resignation of Miss Annie M. French as high school assistant at the close of the spring term, who had received a call to a like position in the high school in Henniker, and in the emergency we considered ourselves fortunate in securing Miss Hope G. Robinson, of Ayer, Mass., to fill the vacancy, who came to us highly recommended, a graduate of the Boston University, and is filling the position with satisfaction.

Miss M. Etta Hadley, who had taught music with so much efficiency, declined a re-election, and Miss Annie L. Gillis of Manchester accepted the position, and her musical accomplishments and training qualify her for superior instruction.

With a desire to advance the general standard of the school and feeling assured that the most practical and economical method would be to build up the system of study in the primary rooms, by assistant service, as adopted in many New England schools, we made an experiment of a two weeks' period in the lower primary division at afternoon sessions only, with Miss Edith M. Seeton as the assistant, and we are thoroughly convinced that at times when the attendance in that room reaches a maximum number it would be wise to employ an assistant, under well understood regulations for this associate work, in order to advance the scholarship in the two primary grades one year, thus more thoroughly fitting the pupils for entering the intermediate room and being more fully prepared to take up the course of study there defined, which now is too often beyond their comprehensive grasp. The opinion of leading and practical educators confirm us in our favorable conclusions. Miss Seeton gave excellent satisfaction in this experiment and has proved a fortunate substitute in other departments of the school when sudden vacancies of short duration have occurred.

The splendid work of the primary department we heartily commend, but when a teacher finds herself surrounded by 53 boys and girls it is utterly impossible to find the time to give them the attention and instruction they certainly need.

A word of approbation is merited by all the teachers for the time and effort given to drill and preparation for Memorial Day, and on other anniversary occasions along these patriotic and historic lines.

We would express our thanks to the Unity Club for the framed picture presented the grammar room, while from another source a portrait of Lincoln has been hung in the lower primary room and one of President Roosevelt in the higher primary.

A new flag has been provided by the town, under the provisions of the new state law, and a flagpole has been donated all equipped and erected in the school yard, from which "Old Glory" is daily floating during the school year.

The flagpole set in the roof, owing to continual leakage doing damage to the rooms below, was removed to a position outside and at the gable end, and there made secure.

Changes much needed have been made in facilities for better heating the grammar room and also additions made about the boiler which well prove their value for warmth and safety, also the grammar and intermediate rooms have been brightened by freshly tinted walls, whitened ceilings and floor dressing, which treatment should be continued throughout the building the coming year, for the pupils can do much better work with neat, congenial surroundings, and we all have a sense of pride in these things. An organ has been placed in the grammar room, which will be of great convenience, the cost of which being largely met by teacher and pupils from an entertainment given.

The enrollment of children in the district between the school ages defined by law represented 83 girls and 97 boys.

A step has been taken towards equalizing the salary of the teachers, for it is only right that more uniformity should prevail, and the patient, industrious, painstaking teacher is certainly worthy of her hire.

We are fortunate in the janitor of the building, Mr. E. A. Brown, who is an expert boiler inspector, and his thorough knowledge of everything pertaining to its management and workings, and general care about it and also of the buildings, renders his service peculiarly trustworthy and valuable.

We note with pleasure the renewed interest parents are taking in the progress of the school, as certified to by more numerous visits. These visits pay large dividends in the encouragement they give to the pupils.

The coming men and women are in our schools today; a responsibility comes to us all. Let us strive, therefore, in all reasonable ways, to advance the cause of education by precept and example, coupled with practical instruction and well directed supervision, so that the results we all desire to see may be more nearly realized in nobler character and a more efficient manhood and womanhood, as these young men and women go out into the world and enter the battle of life, which will count so largely for all that is best and substantial in the true welfare of town and state.

Respectfully submitted,
 WILLIAM H. STINSON,
 MRS. CHARLES S. PARKER,
 ANNIE M. KENDALL,
 FRANK BLAISDELL, M. D.,

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL BOARD OF THE TOWN SCHOOL DISTRICT.

Your committee would submit the following general report for the past year:

Our schools have enjoyed a degree of prosperity above the average. Nearly all the schools have done well.

The teachers and scholars have worked together and the aim has accomplished the desired result.

We believe all the teachers employed have labored faithfully to give the best of instruction. With two exceptions the teachers have had previous experience in teaching.

We have discarded the vertical system of writing and introduced the natural slant in its place.

The schoolhouse at Parker's has received a coat of paint on the outside and the one on Tebbetts Hill one on the inside.

We are sorry to say that the repairs that should have been made at Kennedy Hill schoolhouse have been delayed until next year.

The school board wishes to return their thanks to the parents for their hearty co-operation in making our schools a success, and also for their liberality in voting the board three hundred and fifty dollars extra school money, for which we have been able to give our scholars four extra weeks of schooling. We believe the cheapest and best place to educate our boys and girls is at home where their parents can have an oversight of them. We would also return our thanks to the parents and friends of the Shirley Hill district for their generous donation of a clock, globe, bookcase, maps, pictures, and other useful articles, which have added greatly to the attractiveness of the schoolroom, and we would also return our thanks to Mr. George Perkins for an eight-foot map for the Grasmere school.

The school at the Mountain was presented with a flag by Mr. George W. Henry of Omaha, Neb. Others needed have been purchased at the expense of the town as provided by law.

We often hear it said, "The country schools are not what they used to be." Now if the people who make these remarks would examine our town reports of thirty years ago or more they would find remarks like these: "When the golden age of our schools shall come it will find one series of text books allowed. In one school arithmetics by six different authors were found. Half of the teacher's time was wasted by the multitude of classes."

Another extract from the same report reads as follows: "The condition of the schools with four exceptions is better than a year ago, and in these cases the money has not been wholly wasted." Of one schoolhouse a report says: "Its seats are abominable and its ventilation worse." Of another we read: "It seems as though the very cattle who lodge in the barns of the district would be ashamed of the old schoolhouse."

Most of these drawbacks to education have passed away. Text books are furnished by the town.

The voters of the district are always ready to vote an ample amount of money for the repair of our schoolhouses, and the school board that would tolerate four teachers who were not doing good work would be sadly neglectful of their duty.

While our schools are still far from perfection we feel justified in saying that they are doing better work than they did in the days of long ago.
